CHILDREN LEAD WAY

Brightwood Citizens Strew Flowers on Union Graves.

SERVICES AT BATTLEGROUND

Men Who Fell Near Old Fort Stev-Plan a Memorial Bowlder-Children Chant Military Airs.

"A little child shall lead them" was the Scriptural prophecy, and yesterday it was the little ones, all robed in white who led the memorial service at Battle ground Cemetery and placed wreaths and roses upon the headstones marking the graves of those who fought in defense of Senator Owen Eulogizes Washington the day. J. D. Bloodgood, department ment commander, held exercises at the

Here it was that the Confederacy, in a last attempt to draw Grant away from his advance upon Richmond, threatened the Capital in' a swift flank movement. Only the advance guard of that army corps got within the District line, and it was on the site of Battleground Cemetery that a two days' battle occurred.

Forty sons of the North were slain in Wheaton's advance upon the enemy, and Early, the Confederate leader, also suffered heavily. The Southerners are buried

Will Erect Bowlder.

Veterans cheered yesterday when W. V. Cox, on behalf of the Fort Stevens Association, announced that a bowlder would shortly be placed on the site of the old now," he said. "It would be appropriate to dedicate this bowlder, with a bronze tablet, on the forty-fifth anniversary of the battle, which comes on July 11. But the objection has been raised that Washington is largely deserted at this time. It

The services were charming. Walled about with hedge, the cemetery was made the introductions.

The exercises were brought to a close crowded. The forty headstones are ar-Then the forty or more little girls from the Brightwood, Brightwood Park, Takoma, and Petworth public schools drew around the headstones and placed their

The oration of the day was delivered by William Wallace Brown, Assistant Attorney General of the United States. He exalted the thought of nationality and the union of the sections.

The programme of exercises was under the direction of Capt. Newton M. Brooks, past department commander G. A. R. The bugler of the United States Soldiers' Home Band called the assembly. Rev. Hesser, pastor of Emory made the introductory remarks.

erty." W. V. Cox made an address on held in the chapel at Glenwood. work of the Fort Stevens Associa-and Barry Bulkley read Lincoln's John M. Thurston, who pointed out the public lays its tribute of flowers on the work of the Fort Stevens Associa-

List of Honored Dead. The honored dead buried in Battleground Cemetery are the following: Sergt Thomas Richardson, Sergt, Alfred C. Starbird, Elijah S. Hufletin, Jeremiah Maloney, and William Tray, of the Twenty-fifth New York Cavalry; E. C. Barrett, of the Fortieth New York Infantry; E. S. Bavett, John Davidson, New York Infantry; John Bentley, Harvey P. B. Chandler, David L. Hogeboom, Alanson Hosier, and John Kennedy, of the 122d New York Infantry; Lieut. William Laughlin, Andrew Ashbaugh, Philip Bowen, John Ellis, George Garvin, and H. McIntire, of the Sixty-first Pennsylvania Infantry; William Holtzman, of dress was by Commander Duvail. the Ninty-third Pennsylvania Infantry; of the Second Massachusetts Cavalry; dress, Patrick Lovett, of the Thirty-seventh Oak Hill Cemetery was then visited. Massachusetts Infantry; John Pocket, of Orders were read by J. W. Kirkley, and the Seventh Maine Infantry; Corporal

ADDRESSES WERE FEATURE.

Memorial Services Conducted by Grand Army and Sons of Veterans. Under the auspices of John A. Logan Post, G. A. R., assisted by Lincoln Camp, Sons of Veterans, memorial services were held yesterday in St. Elizabeth Ceme-

Addresses were made by Commander A. B. Frisbie, Dr. William A. White, superntendent of the hospital; Benjamin J. Northcott, on behalf of the Sons of soms Veterans, and Rev. F. L. Bardens, pas-alike. tor of the Anacostia Baptist Church. President Lincoln's address was read by by an Association of Patriots Who

Selections were played by the Hospital
Band, under the direction of E. T. Davis, and sung by the St. Elizabeth and Anaeostia Methodist Episcopal Church choirs. Daniel E. Smithson sang a solo. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. N.

on Historic Soil.

Descendants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence Conduct Exercises.

Members of Washington chapter, Descendants of Signers of the Declaration of Independence, together with a numat woodside, where a shaft marks their ber of other patriotic celebrants, gather-To the south of the cemetery is ed yesterday at the tomb of Washingold Fort Stevens, which was one of the ton, at Mount Vernon, to pay tribute defenses of the city. It is near the heart to the Father of His Country.

Rev. George Washington Dame, Baltimore, chaplain of the society, opened the exercises by an invocation. The principal address was made by Senator Owen of Oklahama, his subject being itting tribute.

were placed on the graves of George and Martha Washington, were those sent by the President and Vice President of the United States.

Representative James Lloyd, of Missouri, who presided, also delivered a is hot in the Capital during July, but we patriotic address, in which he paid may assume that it was not in the battle tribute to the nation's dead of all the So we may well make our wars from the beginning, to the greatest plans to dedicate the memorial at this of all American struggles-that of 1861-65. William S. McKean, founder of the society of the Descendants of the Signers, flagstaff. The bugle sounded "taps," and the throng quickly circled the graves.

Then the forty or more little with the control of the contro of the committee in charge of the services were: Robert John Walker, Arthur E. H. Middleton, Henry F. French, Mrs. Amos G. Draper, Miss Sallie S Beach, Mrs. E. A. McComber, and Mrs. Thomas D. Waters.

ADDRESS BY MR. THURSTON.

Memorial Day Exercises Conducted in Four Cemeteries.

Members of George H. Thomas Post, No. 15, G. A. R., Richard J. Harden Camp, Spanish War Veterans, and Cush-Chapel, Brightwood, gave the invocation, Camp. Spanish War Veterans, and Cush-and Capt. Brooks opened and read the ing Camp, Sons of Veterans, under direc-A. R. orders. Louis P. Shoemaker tion of Joseph H. Langham, decorated the graves of soldiers yesterday in Glen-Edgar C. Snyder made an address me-wood, Prospect Hill, St. Marys, and morianzing the dead, and the school children sang "Beautiful Flag of Lib-lesson in patriotism taught by Memorial 30,000 new-made graves. Next year the Gettysburg Address.

Hon. James M. Blount, of Georgia, for Day. Opening remarks were made by death list will be still more. This is the Congressional Cemetery was the Mecca Hon. James M. Blount, of Georgia, formerly United States district judge in Commander Langham, of Thomas Post, and the Philippines, read a letter from President Lincoln to a widow of the Union Who had lost five sons in the war. The H. House, after which the assemblage to the place of the same o who had lost five sons in the war. The H. H. House, after which the assemblage children sang "Hear Your Country's sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Edcall," and the band played "America." ward A. Keeler read Lincoln's address Father F. X. Bischoff, pastor of the Caurch of the Nativity, Brightwood, deby Miss Ida O'Neal. The singing of "Immedia" and the hearding of "America" and the benediction closed the ceremonles.

COMMITTEE IN CHARGE

Holy Rood and Oak Hill Graves Decorated Following Addresses.

Services at Holy Rood and Oak Hill cemeteries were conducted by a general committee consisting of Past Command-Matthew J. De Graff, G. W. Farrar, and er B. T. Janey, Joseph W. Kirkley, A. Mark Stoneham, of the Forty-third New B. Grunwell, Rudolph Ullmer, Walter B. York Infantry; William H. Gillette, of Sebastian, and Asa H. Kendry, of Post the Forty-ninth New York Infantry; Cor- 19, and Commander C. N. B. Nicholson, of Admiral George Dewey Naval Camp, Andrew J. Dowen, Andrew Manning, and No. 7, United Spanish War Veterans.

The members of Post 19, G. A. R., and camp of Spanish War veterans assembled at the entrance to Holy Rood at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, and escorted by the band of the Industrial Home School, marched to the graves where a short service was held. The admorial orders for the day were read by Sergt. George Marguet, Bernard Hoerle, Rudolph Ullmer, and prayer was offered Charles Seahouse, and Frederick Wal- by Rev. Patrick Brennan. A selection ther, of the Ninety-eighth Pennsylvania was sung by the chorus of the Indus-Infantry; Sergt. John M. Richard, of the trial Home School, and Robert Lee Hay-139th Pennsylvania Infantry; John Dolan, cock read from Lincoln's Gettysburg ad-

George W. Gorton, of the First Rhode troductory. Prayer was offered by Rev. Island Infantry; Russell L. Stevens, of W. C. Skinner, of the Industrial Home In charge of Mrs. Kathryn Hodgson, STRANGE.

A snake in a popular zoo
Tried to swallow a goat or two—
The goat made a splutter,
"I thought that the butter
Would melt in his mouth," said the gnu.

ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE

Loft side down, between two figures.

FLOWERS ARE STREWN FOR THE NATION'S DEAD

Continued from Page One.

soldiers who died in the struggle with Spain. The line was then dismissed, and singly and in groups men, women, and children set about laying clusters of blossoms on the graves of Blue and Gray

Battery Fires Salute. The national salute at noon by a bat tery of United States Field Artillery opened the exercises proper at the amphitheater, where the oration was by Sen ator McCumber. The call of "assembly was sounded by a bugler, the Marine Band played "The Star Spangled Banner," and the band, chorus, and assemblage joined in the singing of "Nearer SERVICES AT MOUNT VERNON My God, to Thee." A brief address was m, written for the occasion by Dr. Thomas Caiver, department medical director, G. A. R., was read by the author, ntitled "The Men of the Maine." It was a tribute to the 273 sailors who > and to the survivors of the tragedy. Senator McCumber was presented to concourse by Col. Holbrook. He gave an eloquent eulogy to the men of the civil war, and spoke of the value of grateful remembrance in the character of The Senator from North Dakota outlined in a general way the primal causes "Washington the patriot." It was a that led up to the great struggle and the conditions that brought about the Along with the floral tributes that strife. He pictured the types of men who upheld the opposing banners, and spoke of the lapse of time that is rapidly obliterating the sectional feeling between the North and the South, pleading elouently that the nation may do everything in its power to hasten the complete healing of the wounds.

Sounded a Warning. A telling warning against overinflation of the national stock was delivered by the speaker in the words:

"And yet, through all this clamor, this rush for wealth and power; this glorificaion of national prowess; this ostentatiou display, the listening heart of patriotism cannot but hear the whisper of a caution, 'Lest we forget!' We know the history of the world. We know the impressibility of human character."

1865" as the only "haven of absolute

"Nor is this the only change," continued

The New-made Graves.

Following Senator McCumber's address Although the cemetery is not a national the benediction, and a bugler sounded mounds. 'Taps' (lights out).

In the section of Arlington Cemetery Drennan. reserved for the Spanish war veterans, The oration was delivered by Senator impressive ceremonies were held by the Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, who paid veterans of the nation's latest war, and a tribute to the women of '61 who sent the auxiliaries. The procession was led their husbands and sons to the war. He by the band of the District National said in part: Guard, tendered by courtesy of Gen. "Because of the sacrifice of the boys of George H. Harries, member of Lawton '61, the boys of '98 were inspired to go ment Commander G. E. Rausch and Department Chaplain Henry A. Brown. Commander Rausch was assisted in conthem free, but your sacrifices were better fucting the services by Capt. Lee M. far than any such compromise with ipscomb and Maj. F. S. Hodgson, Capt. wrong. iel V. Chisholm was in charge of the marching column.

others, and addresses were made by Com-

Spanish War monument, the veterans of the benediction by Dr. Neible. 1898 and their friends were served with luncheon at refreshment tents, conducted by the Spanish War Veteran auxiliaries, Mrs. Ida M. Galloway in charge, and the Lineal Society of the Spanish War, Mrs. Fred S. Hodgson in charge.

The other of the two greatest celebrato the scene. The exercises were in charge of Dr. Henry A. Johnson, senior charge of Dr. Henry A. Johnson, senior watching the civil war veterans, who vice department commander, and were conducted memorial services in the opened by the sounding of the bugle call cemetery, and the services were stopped "Assembly." The United States Soldiers' until he could be cared for. Home Band played "Parting," and the Gaelic chorus and assemblage sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The invocation was by Rev. H. Allen Griffith, chapiain of the Soldiers' Home.

Johnson made the opening address, in Rev. Dr. J. Henning Nelms, pastor of at the ends of the Aqueduct, Anacostia, Senior Vice Department Commander which he spoke of the sacredness of Me- the Church of the Ascension. The ad- and Highway bridges, in the various morial Day and the lesson it teaches. dress was read by F. H. Hines. Following the address, the Gaelic chorus The lot owners and their friends were sang the ode to "America," and Dr. entertained at lunch by the managers Thomas Calver, department medical director, G. A. R., recited his poem, "We make the make the Representative David A. Hollingsworth, soldiers were strewn with flowers. of Ohio, who delivered the oration, gave an eloquent eulogy of Abraham Lincoln, and regretted the fact that a statement made in the House of Representatives to Society of the Cincinnati for the State the effect that Jefferson Davis was a greater man than Lincoln had gone unchallenged. While he said: "This is not the time or place to discuss or criticise modern attempts to revive Confederate by placing for a work of the cincinnati for the State under command of Frederick Fowles, as greater man than Lincoln had gone unchallenged. While he said: "This is not total members, honored the memory of the time or place to discuss or criticise modern attempts to revive Confederate by placing for a work of the company with several sisted by R. G. Shaw's Regiment, No. 4, L. Company and Ret and Modern and Company and Ret and Modern and Ret ideals," he declared that "lovers of their the founder of their organization. The Capt. Charles S. Piperountry may well shudder at certain modern suggestions," and that "it will be a dark day, indeed, for the republic when be revered above all other figures of the civil war period, or when it shall be replaced by that of Jefferson Davis to any extent in the hearts and affections of the American people."

He termed it mawkish sentiment. There were musical numbers by the band; the reading of Lincoln's Gettys-burg address by G. Leyburn Shorey, a nish war veteran; "In Memoriam," by Miss Mary Ford; selections by the Gaelic horus, the benediction by Rev. Southgate, chaplain of the Soldiers Home, and "The Last Tribute-Taps," by the band.

After participating in the general exmade by Col. Edwin H. Holbrook, de- ercises at Arlington Cemetery, the garpartment commander, G. A. R., who risons of the Army and Navy Union, in spoke of the significance and sanctity of command of Col. B. F. Chase, departchaplain, G. A. R., pronounced the invo-cation, and the choir sang the "New Hail Hugh H. Henry, Capt. Edward M. Columbia. Orders were read by Capt.
O. H. Oidroyd, assistant adjutant general, and Arthur S. Whitcomb and the Heines, J. H. Johnson, Henry D. Marks, John Doerner, J. V. Wilson, and James Marine Band gave the Inflammatus from Broo Brophey. Delegations were present Rossini's "Stabat Mater." Samuel R. from Admiral D. D. Porter Garrison, No. Stratton read Lincoln's Gettysburg ad- 6; Gen. William F. Barry Garrison, No dress, and "The Rest of the Brave" was 26; Col. Theodore Roosevelt Garrison, No. sung by Miss Bessie Birch. An original 74; President's Own Garrison, No. 184; Gen. Guy V. Henry Garrison, No. 9, and Gen. James Buchanan Garrison, No. 111. The exercises were opened by the singing by the members and the ladies' auxiliary of "Nearer, My God, to Thee," after went down in the ill-starred battle ship were placed on the graves by Comrades George F. Snyder, J. C. Jorgenson, D. J. Finacune, Dr. T. E. Lee, William A. Hickey, and C. F. Claggett. The asemblage was then joined by the mem ers of the negro garrisons, and garlands were strewn on the graves of the negro The women assisting were Mrs. John Hebrew, commander of Auxiliary No. 16, and her staff, consisting of Miss Misses De Marzo, Mrs. T. E. Lee, Mrs W. H. Coulter, Misses Pearl and Lizzie aufman, Mrs. Schley, Miss Heines, and

At Mount Olivet Cemetery the graves of many of the Army and Navy Union sional, Holy Rood, Rock Creek, and Prospect Hill cemeteries exercises were eld by detachments of the union.

ST. JOHN'S EXHIBIT CLOSES

Display of Student's Work Is Termed Successful.

The annual exhibition of drawings and paintings at St. John's College closed last evening. Sunday and yesterday friends and parents visited the Christian Brothers' Hall and viewed with interest He spoke of "the old patriotism of 1861 the work done by the students,

Seldom if ever, in the history of the safety" for the rapidly progressing coun- institution has a more interesting display try, operating as a "shield against the of work been seen. The scope of the dangers that always lurk in the shadow work was wide and varied in kind, emof too rapid progress, or breed degeneracy bracing all designs, from the straight the indolent atmosphere of too great projections of the smaller boy to the fin-

Cartooning, seldom taught in the col-"Our old American stock is being swal- and unlimited field at St. John's, and owed up by the vast army from Southern the results shown indicate real talent in Europe. In the amalgamation, the that department of art. The oils, cover-Americanization of all these people, we ing a wide range of subjects, were high need to keep burning, intensely burning, in class, and the mechanical drawings of the old American patriotism. Though the extremely difficult design were of deblood may change, the old spirit must cidedly technical school order, be maintained unquenched.

FLAGS PLACED OVER GRAVES.

step, and at night you sing the same old civil, Mexican, and Spanish-American there were musical selections by John burying ground, many soldiers have found Waters, the Marine Band, and the choir, their final resting place there. The grassy Col. John Tweedale gave a selected read- slopes presented a pretty appearance with ing; Rev. John Reid Shannon pronounced hundreds of tiny flags flying above the

The exercises were in charge of George The officer of the day and marshal at C. Ross, junior vice department com-Arlington was Maj. E. R. Camp- mander, G. A. R., assisted by A. F. bell. Capt. John C. Maynard was officer Dinsmore, commander of Farragut Post, of the guard, and Maj. Fred S. Hodgson, and C. O. Howard were aids.

Dinsmore, commander of Farragut Post, of the guard, and Maj. Fr. Graham, G. R. Cook, and Milton

The line was headed by Depart-forth that an affen race might be free. Commander G. E. Rausch and Deto have bought the claves of '61 and set

At the Spanish war monument shortly States Engineer Band, after which the after noon the United Spanish War Vet- choir of the Metropolitan Baptist Church erans' ritual for the dead was read by and the assemblage sang "Neaper, My Commander Rausch, Chaplain Brown, and God, to Thee." Junior Vice Department ander Rausch and Chaplain Br wn. The tory address, and Rev. Dr. Charles L. Neibel pronounced the invocation. "Tentmonument was draped with garlands by monument was draped with garlands by the Legion of Spanish War Women, the ling on the Old Camp Ground" was sung Department of the District of Columbia, by Mrs. Arthur G. Dunn and the choir, by Mrs. Arthur G. Dunn and the choir, United Spanish War Veterans, and the and Lincoln's Gettysburg address was auxiliaries to the Spanish War Veterans, read by Dr. A. J. Huntoon, Dr. W. P. the Third Vermont Infantry; Russell L. Stevens, of W. C. School. Flowers were distributed by a president, the recently formed organiza- Republic." "Abide with Me" was played of the Second United States Artillery. committee of women. by the band, and Mrs. Dunn sang 'The held special services at the graves of Rest of the Brave." An ode, "The Thin-patriotic individuals.

The Emancipation of 1898. Sarah Willard, and Miss Nellie Southard Park, on account of its conspicuous posi-Spanish War Veterans. sang a selection. The ceremonies were tion, attracted much attention, as did the On conclusion of the ceremonies at the closed by the singing of "America" and statue of Lincoln, at the head of John

STRICKEN AT MEMORIAL.

James Duvall Suffers Apoplectic Stroke at Congressional Cemetery. of Princeton University, James Duvall, seventy years old, father of Lieut. Duvall, of the Fifth potions of the day was at the National lice precinct, was stricken with apoplexy Cemetery, in the Soldiers' Home reserva- at noon yesterday in Congressional tion. The exercises were held in Stanley Cemetery, where he is employed as a Hall, and the parade was omitted on ac- watchman. He was taken to the Casualcount of the weather. In the throngs at ty Hospital for treatment. At an early the cemetery were soldier veterans of hour this morning Duvall's condition vester, to handle the crowds that turned fleet. It is probable that the facts brough two wars, and a martial aspect was given was serious, and physicians despaired out yesterday. An extra detachment of out by this long cruise will come up for of saving his life. The aged man was stricken while

In Gunton Temple Chapel, conducted by cinct. Other detachments were stationed New York Life Affected by Law Re-Placed Wreath on Tomb.

Thomas Savage Clay, secretary of the FINANCIAL.

FINANCIAL.

THE EQUITABLE

Organized 1879.

Co-operative Building Association

Announces the Opening for Subscription

57th Issue of Stock

Shares, $2.50 Per Month.

Pay 4% Per Annum

Office, Equitable Building, 1003 F St. N. W.

Call or Write for Pamphlet.

JNO. JOY EDSON, President. FRANK P. REESIDE, Secretary.

Capital $200,000.

U. S. Government Supervision.

When You Receive Your Pay Envelope

Open An Account With This Bank.

7% Interest Paid on Savings

Compounded Every Six Months.

is the time to MAKE GOOD your intentions to become a saver. Even a small portion of your salary will start you on the right road if deposited in this bank. And after you have made the start you may rest assured that we will offer you every encouragement to continue.

Thousands are steadily approaching the goal of financial independence via the "M. & M. Savings Route"—why not you?

Merchants & Mechanics Savings Bank, 10th and Pa. Ave.

BRANCHES:

Cor. 7th and GSts. N.W. Cor. 20th and Pa. Ave.

NOTICE!

United Wireless Telegraph Co.'s

UNITED WIRELESS TELEGRAPH COMPANY, 302-3 Westory Building, Washington, D. C.

PREFERRED PARTICIPATING STOCK.

Those present were: William Marbury Beall, James Malcolm Henry, and Joseph Young Reeves.

STATUES WERE DRAPED.

Memorials to Men of Civil War Period Decorated with Flags. A feature of Memorial Day observances yesterday was the decoration of the city's statues, done by the members of the committee on decoration of statues and by The Emancipation statue in Lincoln

The statue of Alexander Shepherd, in front of the Municipal Building, was draped with American flags and generous offerings of flowers. The figure of Gen Witherspoon was decorated by the alumni

POLICE MAINTAIN ORDER.

vester, Superintendent, patrolmen was placed at the steamboat more or less discussion during the conferwharves, in charge of Capt. Mulhall, of ence. the Fourth precinct, and Lieut. Sutton. Capt. Elliot was assigned to the task president of the college, will open the conof preventing gambling at the horse ference, and the opening address is to be races, at Brightwood, assisted by a detail delivered by Rear Admiral Stephen B.

The parade of the Grand Army was Memorial services of Forest Lake accompanied by a police guard directed Cemetery were held yesterday morning by Capt. Hollinberger, of the First precemeteries of the city, at street railway transfer stations, and at other points without accident.

Services at Harmony Cemetery, was marked by simplicity. DECORATION DAY IN RICHMOND

Graves at Seven Pines and National Cemetery Covered with Flowers. Special-to-The Washington Herald,

Richmond, Va., May 31.-Memorial Day n Richmond was observed with the usual exercises. At the National Cometery Custer Post, No. 1, colored, had entire charge of the celebration and decorations. $35.00 WILL PAY FOR PAPERING A 6-The two white posts went to Seven Pines, where the exercises included an address by Comrade B. K. Ladd. the reading of poems, and the memorial ad-of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address by Bertha-Tarpley and the memorial address by J. Henry Crutchfield were the features.

WALL PAPER AND DECORATIONS. SATISFACTION ASSURED. 971.

WAR COLLEGE TO OPEN.

World Cruise Will Be Topic for Dis cussion at Newport Conference. Newport, R. I., May 31.-The annual ummer conference at the Naval War College will open to-morrow morning Special Provision Made by Maj. Syl- Included in the officers in attendance this summer are Rear Admiral Charles S. Special provision was made by the Sperry and a number of the officers who police department, by order of Maj. Syl- circled the world with the battle-ship

Rear Admiral John P. Merrell, U. S. N.

WILL DROP 1,200 AGENTS.

garding New Business.

New York, May 31.—Beginning with to morrow, 1,200 agents of the New York where crowds were expected to gather. Life Insurance Company will be dropped The large assemblage brought out in from the service of the company. On celebration of the day were handled April 1, after Justice O'Gorman, of the Supreme Court, upheld as constitutional the section of the insurance laws prohibiting any company writing more than $150,-Memorial services yesterday at Har- 000,000 of new business in any one year, mony Cemetery were conducted by notices were served on about 1,000 of the Charles Sumner Post, No. 9, G. A. R., company's agents that they would not be

FINANCIAL.

Capital and Surplus, $6,500,000

You Will Avoid Much Inconvenience

-While abroad by having this bank supply you with TRAVELERS' CHECKS! or LETTERS OF CRED-IT before starting on your

We issue them on all foreign countries. They possess the advantage of being safe to carry, and are easily converted into the various foreign currencies.

International Banking Corporation, 1414 F St.

Uptown Branch, 1136 Conn. Ava. Downtown Branch, Center Market

Capital and Surplus...$2,700,000 Resources Over......$13,000,000

THE Most Approved Banking Policies.

This bank's methods are invariably characterized by strict adherence to the principles of sound banking. Depositors will appreciate ur suggestions concerning con-ervative investments.

Special Dept. for LADIES. RIGGS National Bank,

Penna. Ave., Opposite U. S. Treasury.

The Safest Investme conditions of the money or stock deed of trust notes (first mortgage on real estate in the District of stitute "gilt-edge" inventments, depend upon the financial responsibilities or corporations for their We can supply such investments in amounts from $600 upward. Send for booklet, "Concerning Leans and Investments."

Swartzell, Rheem & Hensey Co.,

Business Properties

Treasury.

INCREASE IN VALUE

WEAVER BROS.

MONEY AT 5 PER CENT

Loaned on D. C. Real Estate, HEISKELL & McLERAN, 1403 H st. REAL ESTATE LOANS Made at Lowest Rates of Interest.

W. H. WALKER, 729 15th st. nw.

WALL PAPER One Cent a Word Each Insertion Wall paper and decorating; satisfaction guaranteed. M. C. Dyer, 1249 Wis, ave gua:

of wall paper at a very low sacrifice Call and see our stock. Sign painting show cards, and gilding. F. G. NOLTE 907 11th st. nw. jas-eod-tf room house. Larger houses or single rooms equally low. We use paper that is way above the ordinary kind.

JORDAN & JORDAN,

'Phone Linc. 802, 228 East Capitol st, 171*

INSURANCE.

RALPH W. LEE, Insurance in All Its Branches. Removed to Rooms 201-2-3 Commercial National Bank Building.

FIGHT BEGINS IN BRISTOL. Local Option Election Petition Is

Being Circulated. Bristol, Va., May 31.-A petition asking Judge Price, of the Corporation Court, to call a local option election for July 9 is now being circulated in Bristol, and will! be presented to the court June 8. It is said that some difficulty is being encountered in getting signers, though those interested say that it is because the people are not anxious to publicly identify themselves with the "wets" for obvious reasons.

The victory of the "wets" at Peters-burg has given an impetus to the movement to get saloons back here. LIVE STOCK MARKET.

New York, May Si.—CATTLE—Receipts, 4,030 head. Steers, 6,40a7.00; tops, 7.25; buils, 6.25a5.00; cows, 2.30 a5.75; tail ends, 2.25. Dressed beef steady.

CALVES—Receipts, 8,600 head; steady. Veals, 6,50a.00; throw-outs, 7.00; buttermiles, 5,00a.50.

DRESSED CALVES—Easy. City dressed reals, Auto-technical City, country, dressed 18a10. 9ai3; few choice, 15%; country dressed, 8a12; SHEEP AND LAMBS—Receipts, 14,880 head. Sheep, 4,00a5,00; few exports do., 625; hambs, 2,01a, 9,62%; culls, 7,00; yearlings, 5,00a7,50; few choice, HOGS-Receipts, 10,920 head; lower at 7.45a7.65.

Wille you think of it, telephone your Want Ad. to The Washington Herald, and bill will be sent you at I cent a word